In the Market For a WHEAT DRILL

Then Our "New Peoria" Is What You Want

It has perfect working discs, fitted with dust proof chilled bearings, single draw bars that will not gather trash, staggered spoke wheels with 7-inch hub and 3-inch tires, continuous rear bar with truss rod to support seat and keep drill from sagging, direct pressure in rear of disc; a feature we claim will make this drill work perfectly in any land suitable for sowing grain and where other drills cannot be operated. A seat in center of drill convenient to lever is also furnished. Drop in and let us show you what this drill can do, and furnish you with the names of a score of satisfied users. One feature of our drill that puts it in a class by itself and makes it superior to all other drills on the market is the "Peoria Disc Shoe." You won't find the disc shoe on any other press drill on earth, the Peoria people have that feature cinched and they are going to hang on to it. If you want to know why we can grow more wheat to the acre after this drill than any other with the same amount of grain sown, come in and let us explain to you the "New Peoria Disc Shoe Drill."

MISS ALLIE DAVIS

Of Mason County Won Second Prize in Armour's Economy
Contest

In the Kitchen Economy Contest conducted by the Armour Company of Chicago, Miss Allie Davis residing on Rural Route 5, near Mayville, won second prize for the State of Kentucky.

The Armour Co. gives away $500 per month in these contests, the receipts for cooking are then used in their monthly cook book, which is issued to reduce the cost of living and incidentally to advertise the company's goods.

Miss Davis' recipe which was awarded the second prize in this state was the following:

Stuffed okra—Wash two dozen pods of okra, cut off the pointed end and slit far enough to remove the seeds. Take one-fourth cup of cold chicken, minced fine, three tablespoons of the chicken gravy, a few of the removed seeds and enough finely crumbed dry biscuit to make it like turkey dressing, season with salt and pepper. Fill each pod with the mixture, put it into a baking pan, cover with a layer of dry biscuit crumbs, a layer of grated cheese and a tablespoonful of butter. Dissolve one-fourth teaspoonful of Armour's Extract of Beef in a cup of boiling water and add. Bake for a half hour covered; remove cover and bake a few minutes more.

TWO CHILDREN

Cause Waste of Space in Cincinnati
Dailies

Last night's Times Star contained a picture of Pearl and Joe Cane and a long article, an excerpt of which says:

"To find their papa, whom they had not seen for months, Pearl and Joe Cane, aged 8 and 5 respectively, boarded a train at Maysville, Ky., and came to Cincinnati. Failing to find him, the youngsters were taken to the Children's Home."

Their father was here two weeks ago looking after his children, and it can be said to his credit that he has never neglected them in any manner. Some days ago they were sent to Cincinnati by order of their father, who is employed at Crane's sawmill in the East End, and there must have been some misunderstanding as to the time of their arrival, hence the non-appearance of the father to receive them at the depot.

An old gentleman meandering along Second

Calhoun, the Second street grocer, the locafashionable and noted hotels of half a century bellum resident, since which many changes have taken place in the old town, and the above popular hostilities of half a century ago are but pleasant memories and ancient history.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN.
FOR CONGRESS,
HON. HARRY BAILEY.

Theodore Roosevelt is the great white plague.—Columbia S. C., State.

A regard for the eternal fitness of things dictates that the Roosevelt campaign book be bound in oilcloth.—Columbia S. C., State.

The Detroit "fan" who threw a "pop" bottle at an unsatisfactory umpire is doubtless a confirmed partisan of the Recall of Judges.—New York Sun.

Boss Flinn cannot convince honest Republicans that he is right in keeping Taft and Sherman electors off the Republican ticket by ridiculing National Chairman Hilles. Flinn is the most insolent boss the State of Pennsylvania has ever had. Even Quay was a gentleman compared with Flinn.

A Tacoma special to the New York World dated September 11, read as follows: "While Colonel Roosevelt's stadium audience last year was 30,000, last night it was 12,000. The Republican primary vote yesterday exceeded that of the Moose and Democrat tickets combined." So there are some regular Republicans still left in Washington, notwithstanding the "thief" of her delegates in the Chicago Republican convention?

Those who are in office and want to stay in naturally favor civil service. Those who are out and want to get in naturally oppose it. Those who are out and do not want to get in any political office must admit that private concerns look for officials who have had experience in government. The opponents of civil service seek to get rid of such, on the ground that "they had enough and others should have their turn." That policy would bring a private corporation to bankruptcy.—Cynthiana Log Cabin.

HOW IGNORANCE IS BRED.

This week a father drove into Berea and took two fine boys out of school because he said he needed them to work on the farm.

He little knew what he was doing. He was making them break a term—leave their studies half finished. He destroyed fully half the value of their winter's schooling for the sake of the little they could do in about ten days.

Does it pay to pull bread out of the oven when it is only half baked?

Does it pay to build half a haystack and not top it out?

Does it pay to fence three sides of a field and leave the last side open?

To get the biggest results from schooling one should stay right thru a school year.

But any one can stay a full term.

Finish something!—Berea Citizen.

It was George Washington who never told a lie, and now his name is being used to further the political interests of about as hard a set of liars as ever made their habitat in Pennsylvania.

About the only reliable deduction to be made from the Vermont result is that we are in for a warm campaign and that we shall probably have an enormous vote out this fall.—Detroit Free Press.

When the Colonel gets on the stand before the Senate Committee he will have to tell some facts which he carefully hid in his eighteen thousand word letter. And the fact that his friend Clapp is at the head of the Committee will not enable Roosevelt to evade relevant questions.

In Montana Roosevelt declared that he would not accept the office of king if it were presented to him. No king in the old country possesses the autocratic power which Roosevelt assumed to himself while he occupied the Presidential office. And no king in the world's history ever exercised the despotic authority which Roosevelt as would show if he were to be elected President for another term.—Williamsport (Pa.) News.

Political Pickings

Pittsburgh Sun: Equal suffrage for women was turned down in Ohio, but you bet your life the liquor proposition went through with a hurrah.

Boston Globe: If Dr. Wiley continues to talk, and speaks a little louder, perhaps in time Colonel Roosevelt will hear him.

Hartford Courant: We infer from what we see that it's considered all right at Armageddon to garble as you battle.

St. Louis Republic: When Colonel Roosevelt was asked to comment on the vote in Vermont he said he was too sleepy.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Why can't you pay rent? Oh, we see your money hasn't come back from the wash.

Philadelphia Inquirer: The Colonel as a "great moral force" puts us in mind of the New York police force.

Boston Advertiser: The lady spell hinders will have plenty to do in Ohio for some time to come.

Chicago News: Mr. Taft is managing his team from the bench this year.

Detroit Free-Press: We begin to respect the Michigan suffragists. They have turned down the Progressives.

Washington Post: A whole lot of Progressives stop cheering when they pass around the hat.

Charleston News and Courier: If Mr. Roosevelt is out for revenge he is certainly getting plenty of it.

ADVERTISING POKER STYLE.

Cleveland Plain Dealer.
A local shoe store has been conducting a bargain sale. In each pair of shoes in the window there are three new $1 bills and the sign reads: "Three of a kind take one pair."

Recently, a big young man entered the store and asked: "Do you sell these shoes according to poker rules, as advertised?"

"Yes, sir," answered the clerk.

"Good. I wear a No. 9. Wrap me up two pairs of shoes."

He received the shoes and handed over $3.

"Excuse me," said the clerk, "these shoes come to $6. You took two pair."

"That's all right," said the young man, "but three of a kind beat two pair."

"I know that," responded the clerk, promptly, "but three of a kind don't beat four of a kind."

STORIES OF CAMP AND WAR

GEN. LYON'S BODY RECOVERED

Graphic Story Related by Dr. Melcher, Who Brought Corpses Out of the Confederate Lines.

Samuel H. Melcher, who now lives at 2327 West Jackson boulevard, Chicago, obtained the body of Gen. Lyon from Gen. Price after the battle of Wilson's Creek and carried it into the Union lines, accompanied by a volunteer escort of confederate soldiers. In his capacity of army surgeon Dr. Melcher was immune from capture and imprisonment by the enemy and made his way without trouble to Gen. Price's headquarters, assisted by a friendly colonel. He can speak authoritatively on the much discussed subject of Gen. Lyon's death at the time of the battle and states that the general was dressed in military uniform. The story of the recovery of the body is told in Dr. Melcher's own words as follows:

"When Col. Sigel's reserve, which had retreated on the Wire road south, halted at the Thompson farm some of the men fought to me Gen. Rains' division surgeon, Smith, who had been captured while coming with help for the wounded. I had him immediately released and we started back on the Wire road in the direction the fighting had taken place to look for wounded. Dr. Smith took the lead through the timber and proceeded in a northwesterly direction until we reached a large confederate emergency hospital, close by a big spring.

"Receiving information that most of the wounded of the last part of the battle were being attended to near the creek, we set out in that direction and were soon in the road crossing over Bloody Hill. The position of the dead on both sides of our path showed how terrible the struggle had been. On each side of the road were dead soldiers, the gray on one side and the blue on the other. After going a short time we started to count and, as we did not wish to go back, we estimated that there were 300 or 400 on both sides of the path.

"Upon dismounting at the hospital the first and only person that I recognized was the long haired Col. Emmet McDonald, a young lawyer of St. Louis, one of the most outspoken secessionists. When he was taken at the capture of Camp Jackson in St. Louis he absolutely refused to be paroled and was accordingly brought to the arsenal and held a prisoner.

"As I had occasion several times each day to pass the tent where McDonald was held, I saw him standing in front of the entrance dressed in a sort of French cavalry uniform, with his arms folded, his eyes glistening, his swarthy countenance seeming to threaten vengeance if he should ever be free again. I had never met him and had no ill will, whatever opinion he might have, and so, as I passed, I simply touched my cap, and to my surprise he seemed each time to soften a little and touched his in return.

"So, when I saw him step quickly toward me as I entered the confederate camp after the battle of Wilson's Creek, and warmly take me by the hand, I was somewhat surprised. After talking a moment in regard to the wounded he informed me that Gen. Lyon was killed. Instantly I said: 'Can I have his body?' He at once said: 'Come with me and I'll see.' He went with me directly to Gen. Price's headquarters and, as he had never known my name, he said: 'This is Gen. Lyon's surgeon. He wishes the body. I want you to give it to him. He is the only officer who treated me decently in the arsenal.'

"Gen. Price, who was dressed as an ordinary citizen, with no insignia of rank except a black leather belt in which was a small Colt's revolver, held out his hand in a fatherly manner and we clasped hands. Turning to Gen. Rains, he asked if he knew where the body was. Replying in the affirmative, Gen. Rains was ordered to bring it for identification. In perhaps twenty minutes a wagon drove up, and I was asked to examine the contents. Upon raising the blanket which covered the face of the dead man I at once recognize our general.

"Gen. Rains asked: 'What is your pleasure?' and I replied that I would like to have the body carried to the Ray house.

"As soon as a coffin could be made the body was taken to the Phelps farm. After the body had been on exhibition for several days Gen. Price ordered it buried. This was done Aug. 14 by Col. Snead, who says: 'I buried him by instructions from Gen. Price, and I said as I put him in the ground, "That is the greatest enthusiast I ever saw and the greatest man." Aug. 22 an undertaker from St. Louis and a party of relatives came and had the body exhumed and it was taken east.'

Picture on the Greenbacks.

One summer during the administration of Secretary Chase, when the treasury was more than usually low, he had occasion to visit some troops that had not been paid off for a long time. Among the men was one with whom he was acquainted, but did not seem to recognize the Secretary, whereupon he introduced himself.

"Oh, yes, you're Mr. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury. It's so long since I've seen your picture that I forgot you."

A college education never hurls a boy if he has sense enough to go back to the farm and go to work.

Postmaster General Hittchcock issued an order increasing the pay of 13,000 railway mail clerks on October 1st at an estimated cost to the Government of $1,000,000 annually.

Where Lightning Strikes

At Washington, the Department of Agriculture made public the results of an extensive investigation of lightning strokes throughout the country. The report disposes of the belief of the ancient philosophers that certain kinds of trees, the laurel, aspen and beech, were never struck by lightning, with the statement that "any kind of tree is likely to be struck."

A WORD WITH WOMEN

VALUABLE ADVICE FOR MAYSVILLE READERS

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

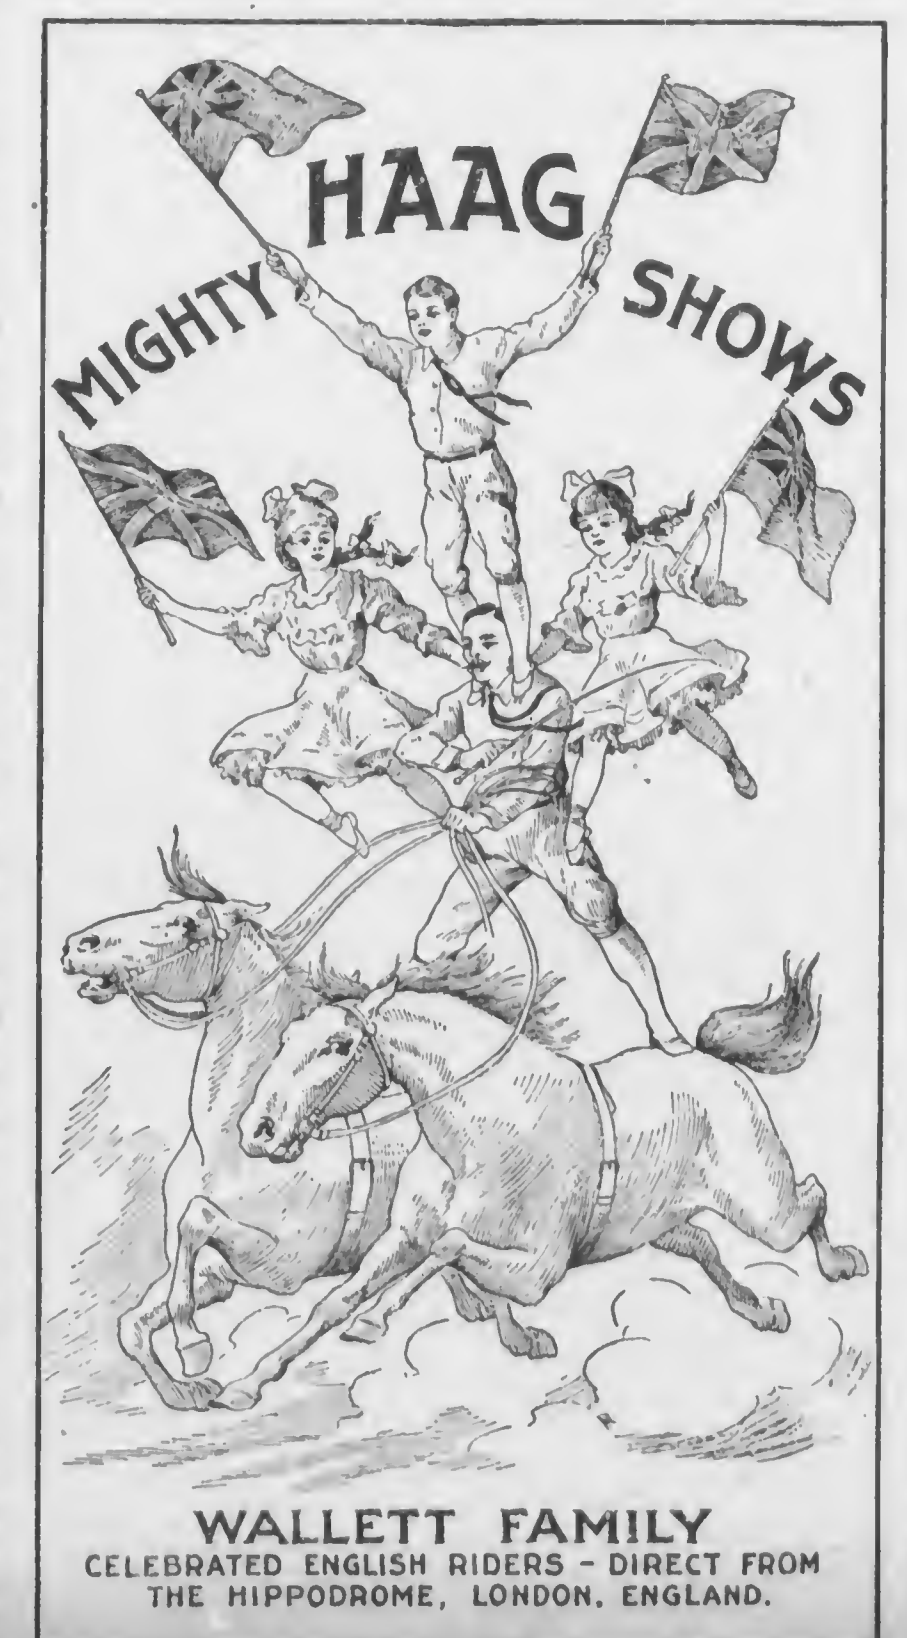

Mrs. Sam Nash, 407 West Second street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Although I have never used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, I can recommend them. One of my family had a great deal of trouble from his back and kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills made him entirely better and he always praises them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLellan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless it is out of the ear, it is out of the ear. Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

FIVE-CENT EGGS

Predicted For Next Winter By Ohio University Poultry Expert

COLUMBUS, O., September 17th.—Five-cent eggs are now predicted. The authority for the statement of what may be expected next winter is Prof. F. S. Jarboe of Ohio State University, head of the Poultry Department. His investigations have disclosed that storage eggs are now being used in cities when usually they are held in reserve at this season of the year. Laying hens are scarce, he says, owing to a variety of causes, and hen fruit is likely to soar unusually high this winter.

"TAFT WILL WIN"

Declares Democrat, Campbell, Richest Man in St. Louis

Says Wilson's Anti-Protection Will Upset Business

ST. LOUIS, Mo., September 17th.—James Campbell, the richest man in St. Louis, President of the North American Company, who is generally known as a sound money Democrat, said tonight that he intended to vote for William H. Taft and the Republican National ticket at the November election. He says his decision is based on the belief that Governor Wilson, the Democratic nominee for President, is without sufficient experience as a statesman and that his program for drastic tariff retrenchment is calculated to upset the business interests of the country.

"There is a feeling in the East," said Campbell, "that President Taft is growing stronger and that he will continue to gain strength until election day. Col. Roosevelt, on the other hand, seems to be losing ground rapidly."

FARM

Consisting of About 137 Acres!

Said farm lies on the South of Millersburg, about one-half mile from town on the west side of the Maysville and Lexington turnpike; the L. & N. R. R. running along west side. This is one of the most desirable farms in the county. It has on it a 2-story brick house, with new roof, and is in good condition; a tobacco barn and warehouse, with plank floor and good tobacco sows; stables, corn crib, buggy house, chicken house, smoke house and splendid ice house, three cellars; also treatment house, two cabins, and the best spring in the county, and two other fields with ever-falling water. This farm is well fenced, and is in a good neighborhood as anyone could wish, and can all be plowed. There are about 35 acres in corn and the rest in grass. Anyone wishing a home will make a great mistake if they don't attend this sale, as there is no more beautiful situation on the Maysville and Lexington turnpike, and is in one-half mile of two of the best schools in the state, both male and female colleges, and only 7 miles from Paris. It will be sold as a whole, or divided to suit purchasers. Terms made known on day of sale.

The body of Arthur Lancaster, who is said to have been run down by the towboat Alice Brown at Portsmouth, was found floating in midstream by John Derham, a riverman, at Vanceburg.

The Tacoma was docked at Captain Gardner's Enterprise dock. She will be given a thorough overhauling and will receive almost a new hull. A new rake or large stern will be built in the Tacoma's hull and new side put on. The packet will not be put in commission until about the last of October.

Rivermen expect the low water season to set in early this fall, as there have been five coal boat water stages out of Pittsburgh this summer, something the oldest rivermen say they never saw before. The Kanawha towboats have made coal bargo trips from Kanawha River every summer month this season.

Art Steel Tube Bed

SQUARE TUBING
Price $

Do you see how the square cross-rod at top of head and foot beautify this bed? Imagine this design with round tubing in those positions. Would not the result be "ordinary" and monotonous?

It is just such details of clever and artistic designing that have made our steel beds so popular. And the very large corner posts with brass caps all combine to make this an unusually artistic bed.
